

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

THE FALL FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR IS HERE! THE LOWCOUNTRY FISH AND GRITS MUSIC FESTIVAL ON HILTON HEAD ISLAND TO FEATURE ARTISTS & CRAFT VENDORS, LIVE MUSIC, AND FOOD TRUCKS TO BE HELD ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7 from 12-6PM AT LOWCOUNTRY CELEBRATION PARK

Hilton Head Island, SC August 8, 2023

The Bank and Island Legacy Fund present the Lowcountry Fish and Grits Music Festival, in association with BurnBush Entertainment, Hilton Head MLK Committee for Justice and the Gullah Geechee Heritage Corridor. The festival will bring awareness to the diverse Gullah Geechee culture and its connection to the vast African diaspora. By bringing together a mix of international and local musical talent, unique crafts, and indigenous cuisine (not easily accessible outside of the Lowcountry), the festival provides a unique cultural experience.

This event is kid friendly with access from the festival to the adjacent Adventure Playground and to The Sandbox Children's Museum. There will be live performances by recording artists Latrese Bush, Votte Hall, Gwen Yvette, and Angela Bonaparte, Latin percussionist Frankie Quinones, Gullah Geechee Ring Shouters and more. Numerous local artisans and food trucks will be featured throughout the park. Parking and shuttle from USCB Hilton Head campus available through Gullah Heritage Tours. The Holiday Inn Express (2 Tanglewood Drive, Hilton Head), is offering an exclusive Fish and Grits room rate that includes two festival tickets per room. Click the hotel link or call (843) 842-6662 ask for group rate FGM and book your room today!

A portion of the festival proceeds will be donated to the Hilton Head MLK Committee for Justice. Festival also sponsored by Native Island Business and Community Affairs Association.

Join us for GREAT FOOD, GREAT MUSIC, AND GREAT TIMES!

www.fishandgritsmusicfest.com * For media inquiries: info@fishandgritsmusicfest.com

