THE LOWCOUNTRY FISH AND GRITS MUSIC FESTIVAL RETURNS TO HILTON HEAD ISLAND

**Hilton Head Island, SC – May 25, 2025]** – The Lowcountry Fish and Grits Music Festival (FGMF) is excited to announce its highly anticipated return on Saturday, October 4, 2025. This vibrant music festival will take place from 12 PM to 6 PM at Lowcountry Celebration Park, promising a day of incredible live music, delicious food, and engaging local arts and crafts vendors.

This year's festival will showcase a diverse lineup of talented artists, offering attendees a rich tapestry of musical genres that reflect the spirit of the Lowcountry. In addition to the electrifying performances, festival-goers can explore a variety of craft vendors featuring unique handmade goods and local artistry, perfect for those looking to take home a piece of the Lowcountry.

Food enthusiasts will not want to miss the selection of food trucks serving up delectable cuisine, with a special focus on the beloved Southern dish, shrimp and grits. This year's event will feature an oyster roast! The festival aims to celebrate not only the vibrant music scene but also the rich culinary heritage of the region, ensuring there's something for everyone to enjoy.

"Our goal with the Lowcountry Fish and Grits Music Festival is to create an atmosphere that showcases the best of our local talent and culinary offerings while providing an unforgettable experience for all attendees.," said Latrese Bush, Founder of FGMF.

The festival is not just a celebration of music and food; it is a gathering of families and friends, offering activities for all ages and creating lasting memories within the beautiful setting of Hilton Head Island.
